

PPAF shows delight the kids

SPECIAL TO BEACH NEWS

PORTSMOUTH | Every Saturday afternoon, from now through August 20, Prescott Park Arts Festival (PPAF) has programmed performances designed especially for kids and the young at heart!

From magic shows to juggling, acrobatic jump-roping to puppet shows, the events feature the very best entertainers in the Seacoast. Sitting on blankets or chairs on the manicured lawn surrounding the outdoor stage at Prescott Park is an ideal way to spend an afternoon with the kids.

Saturday Kid Shows scheduled for the 2005 summer season include the upcoming Munchkin Luncheon on July 16 at 12 p.m., featuring a preview of PPAF's production of "The Wizard of Oz," souvenir and lunch for the kids, and a meeting with all their favorite characters from the show.

On July 23 at 4 p.m., Ballet New England presents "Sleeping Beauty," telling the fairy tale in exquisite dance form. Dan Grady and his marionettes — Country Western "Conway Kitty," Rabbit on Rollerskates, Humphrey Dumpty, and Fred & Ginny (all marionette entertainers extraordinaire) — will be onstage July 30 at 4p.m.

There will be three different shows on

August 6. At 1 p.m., Ballet New England will present fantastic dance numbers by young ballet dancers; at 3 p.m. it will be the PPAF Academy Performance (the surprise PPAF Theatre Academy creation); and at 4 p.m., Extreme Air of NH will perform spectacular acrobatic jump-roping!

Spoof Gabbling Circus, appearing August 13 at 4 p.m. will present professional juggling, unicycling, balance board, and stand up comedy. Get ready for passing clubs on a unicycle, free climbing a six foot unicycle, bouncy balls, bowling balls, balancing tricks, and much more.

On August 20 at 3 p.m. PPAF Teen Theatre Academy will give a performance, followed at 4 p.m. by Lesley Smith and her Theatre of Life Puppets.

Everyone loves Sammy Snail and his funny friends; find out more about them at www.sammysnail.com.

Prescott Park Arts Festival is located at 105 Marcy Street in Portsmouth, across from Strawberry Banke. Parking is available nearby on the street and in downtown lots. A concession stand and handicapped-accessible restrooms are available on-site. Call PPAF at (603) 436-2848 or visit www.prescottpark.org for more information.
