DEEP SEA FISHING

CALL NOW TO PLAN YOUR WEEKEND TRIP!

The Sea Mist sails to the famous offshore ledges of the Gulf of Maine to give the fisherman the best opportunity to catch the premier groundfish species—cod, haddock, pollock, cusk, and wolf fish.

We offer a variety of deep sea fishing trips and cruises off the seacoast of New Hampshire and into the Gulf of Maine. We fish for Cod, Haddock, Pollock, Striped Bass, Mackerel, and Bluefish in season.

'Music Man' marches into Leddy Center

SPECIAL TO BEACH NEWS

EPPING | Leddy Center for the Performing Arts presents Meredith Willson's all-singing, all-dancing, all-American classic, "The Music Man" playing now through July 23.

Directed by Elaine Gatchell with musical direction by J. Bruce Gatchell, "The Music Man" is the story of "Professor" Harold Hill (Michael Coppola), a traveling salesman who arrives in sleepy River City, Iowa, with a big money-making scheme: Convince the good citizens of River City that they desperately need a kids' band — which he will lead — and get them to front a portion of the money for the band instruments and uniforms.

As soon as the instruments and uniforms arrive, he'll collect the balance of the money and leave town ... it's worked before, but he didn't count on falling in love with the town's "old maid" librarian, Marian Paroo (Sarah Dickinson).

Featuring songs such as "76 Trombones," "Til There Was You," and "Lida Rose," Leddy Center's "Music Man" stars a cast ranging in age from 8-74. It is a highly energetic, highly engaging and highly entertaining show for the entire family. Shows are Friday and Saturday at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday at 2 p.m.

Leddy Center is located on Main Street in Epping. Tickets for reserved seating are $16; no one under age 2 is admitted. To make reservations, call the Leddy Center box office at (603) 679-2781 or visit www.leddycenter.org.
