This evening Book Club will meet the first Tuesday of each month from 6:30p.m.-8p.m. at Lane.

Join us March 4 to discuss Atonement, by Ian McEwan

*Considered his finest by many, McEwan traverses love and war in a tale also of guilt and blame—with a twist.
Even if you've seen the movie, come let's have fun with the book!*

From Publishers Weekly: "This haunting novel ... is at once McEwan at his most closely observed and psychologically penetrating, and his most sweeping and expansive. It is in effect two, or even three, books in one, all masterfully crafted."
