Jackie
Rated R (1 hr., 40 mins.)
Wednesday, March 8 @ 1 pm AND
Thursday, March 9 @ 5:30 pm

★ Starring Natalie Portman

A searing and intimate portrait of one of the most important and tragic moments in American history, seen through the eyes of the iconic First Lady, then Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy. JACKIE places us in her world during the days immediately following her husband's assassination. Known for her extraordinary dignity and poise, here we see a psychological portrait of the First Lady as she struggles to maintain her husband's legacy and the world of "Camelot" that they created and loved so well.

Classic Movie
Mrs. Miniver
Not Rated (2 hrs., 14 mins.)
Wednesday, March 15 @ 1 pm

★ Starring Greer Garson and Walter Pidgeon

Greer Garson delivers an Academy Award-winning performance as a British wife and mother whose courage and grace hold her family together through the terror of the World War II German Blitz--Mrs. Miniver. In this film lauded by Prime Minister Winston Churchill, which eloquently captures the hopes of England and America at a time defeat by Nazi Germany seems imminent, Mrs. Kay Miniver (Garson) refuses to allow the war to destroy her family even as she huddles with her children through bombing raids, faces enemy paratroopers and fears for her husband's life as he fights in a string of crushing defeats.

Fences
Rated PG-13 (2 hrs., 19 mins.)
Wednesday, March 29 @ 1 pm AND
Thursday, March 30 @ 5:30 pm

★ Starring Denzel Washington and Viola Davis

Fences is the story of Troy Maxson, a mid-century Pittsburgh sanitation worker who once dreamed of a baseball career, but was too old when the major leagues began admitting black players. He tries to be a good husband and father, but his lost dream of glory eats at him, and causes him to make a decision that threatens to tear his family apart.
